

Learn about the devastation caused by AIDS in Africa and what actions you can take in the battle against this deadly disease with

Author & Pastor Frank Julian

Monday, March 28, 2011

7:00 PM

Livonia Civic Center Library
Auditorium
32777 Five Mile Road
Livonia, MI 48154
734-466-2491

Join Pastor Frank Julian as he shares his newest novel, "AIDS, Love's Fight," a fictional book loosely based on his life's mission to fight AIDS using nutrition.

Pastor Julian's book will leave you breathless as it uncovers the true desolation that has been caused by AIDS in Africa, and how you can become involved in the organization FAWN, Fighting AIDS with nutrition.

Pastor Frank Julian will be discussing the devastating affect that AIDS has had in the African Continent, and how local residents can participate in the battle against this deadly disease. Pastor Julian will also be on hand to share his newest novel, "AIDS, Love's Fight" during a book signing session.

Copies of "AIDS, Love's Fight" are available for purchase on www.amazon.com or www.buybooksontheweb.com
For more information on FAWN, visit www.fightingaids.org